Opening Hymn 246

Hail, Thou Once Despised Jesus

The Gathering

The Greeting

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen.
All The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!
Celebrant May his grace and peace be with you.
All May he fill our hearts with joy.

Celebrant There is one body and one Spirit,
All There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
All One God and Father of all.

Anthem Coelos Ascendit Stanford

The Collect

Celebrant Risen, ascended Lord,
All as we rejoice at your triumph, fill your Church on earth with power and compassion, that all who are estranged by sin may find forgiveness and know your peace, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word Please be seated

The First Reading Acts 1:6-14

So when they had come together, the apostles asked Jesus, "Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" He replied, "It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people

All: Thanks be to God

Psalm 68: 1-10, 33-36

CP 592

1. Let God arise, strike down the foe,
And scatter every enemy;
Let them like wax before the fire,
Like smoke, all vanish speedily.

2, But let the righteous all rejoice,
And let them offer God acclaim;
Let them be jubilant with joy
And sing their praise of God's great Name.

3. Sing praise to God who rides the clouds,
Rejoice before the Lord on high
Who gives the orphaned loving care
And stoops to hear the widow's cry.

4. God gives the desolate a home
And helps the prisoners break their bands,
But those who are rebellious still
Shall live in parched and arid lands.

5. Lord, when you led your people forth,
The earth was shaken, dark skies poured
Before your presence, Holy One,
The God of Sinai, Israel's Lord.

6. Rain in abundance showered down;
You, Lord, restored a weary land;
Your people found a place to live,
The poor were strengthened by your hand.

7. God rides the ancient skies above;
God's mighty voice is heard on high;
God's rule is over Israel;
God's majesty is in the sky.

8. How awesome in your holy place
Are you, O Israel's God, the Lord;
You give your people power and strength;
Praise be to God forevermore.

The Second Reading 1 Peter 4: 12-14, 5:6-11

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

O God Beyond All Face and Form

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
All Glory be to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel

John 17:1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed. I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.”
