The First Reading Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs — in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Psalm 104: 25-35, 37

Bairstow

O Lord, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all!

The earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number,

Creatures both small and great.

There move the ships and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it; you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified; you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

He looks at the earth and it trembles; he touches the mountains and they smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; I will praise my God while I have my being.

May these words of mine please him; I will rejoice in the Lord.

Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and the wicked be no more.

Bless the Lord, O my soul – Hallelujah!

The Second Reading I Corinthians 12: 3b-13

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Gradual Hymn 637

Come, Holy Spirit

Reader The Lord be with you.

All And with thy spirit.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Gospel John 20:19-23

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

The Blessing

Hymn Hail Thee Festival Day

from the Latin C14th century

Tr. George Gabriel Scott Gillett 1873-1948

1. Hail thee festival day! Blest day that art hollowed forever, day where-in God from heaven shone on the world with his grace.
2. Lo, in the likeness of fire, on them that await his appearing he whom the Lord foretold suddenly, swiftly descends.
3. Forth from the Father he comes with seven-fold mystical dowry, pouring on human souls infinite riches of God.
4. Hark! In a hundred tongues Christ's own, his chosen apostles, preach to a hundred tribes Christ and his wonderful works. Hail thee festival day!...
5. Praise to the Spirit of life, all praise to the fount of our being, light that dost lighten all, life that in all dost abide. Hail to the festival day!...

The Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

A huge thank you to her from the Chancel Guild and us all as she steps aside. We welcome Debbie Hofman 705 933-0353 and wish her joy as she takes up the job.

Neighbourhood Clean Up – a roaring round of applause for everyone who helped out: Lois Cook, Libby Owen, Bunny Laing, Norma Jean Laing, Peter Savage and me. We collected numerous bags. I think we made a dent in the copious number of red straws Lois and I collected. Well done. Let's do it again in the fall before the snow comes. Thank you, Diana Gregg.

Two Bit Auction – thanks go out to Bunny Laing for organising, all those who made donations and those who came to bid on the treasures and baking.

Mugs – appreciation goes out to Lois Noyes and the Sloan family for their generous donation of coffee mugs for One Roof. We can never have enough, so keep them coming. Thank you. Diana Gregg.

Wednesday Study Group – The Study Group has moved into summer mode and will meet again in the fall.

On Sunday June 11th we will be announcing the winner of the Kenny Award. Kenny Robinson was a cheerful, hardworking boy who grew up in the neighbourhood, and started singing in the All Saints' choir at age 8. He drowned a year later. Kenny loved being part of the choir and singing with his big brother, Wayne. Kenny felt that his life wouldn't be the same without choir.

The Kenny Award was first presented in 1969. A trophy was presented to a deserving choral scholar each year. The trophy and all the records of the Award were lost in the fire.

The Kenny Award was reinstated last year and will be presented to a chorister under 30 who has demonstrated a commitment to the All Saints' choir through their attendance, enthusiasm, and desire to improve as a singer.
