day wherein God from heaven shone on the world with his grace.

He whom the Lord foretold, suddenly, swiftly descends.
- 3 Forth from the Father he comes with his seven-fold mystical dowry, pouring on human souls infinite riches of God.
- 4 Hark! In a hundred tongues Christ's own, his chosen apostles,
Preach to a hundred tribes Christ and his wonderful works.
Hail to the festival day!...
- 5 Praise to the Spirit of life, all praise to the fount of our being,
Light that dost lighten all, life that in all dost abide.
Hail to thee festival day!...

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Officiant Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy.
And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God; yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul.
Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace.

~Please assume a position of prayer~

Officiant ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father,

All: We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy laws, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us.

But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Officiant Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of sinners, but rather that they may turn from their wickedness, and live, hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins.

He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel.

Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Officiant And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All OUR Father who art in heaven,
 Hallowed be thy Name,
 Thy kingdom come,
 Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 As we forgive them that trespass against us;
 And lead us not into temptation,
 But deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
 For ever and ever. Amen.

PSALM 104:25-35, 37b

Bairstow (sung by choir)

25 O Lord, how manifold are your works!

in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures.

26 Yonder is the great and wide sea

with its living things too many to number,

- creatures both small and great.

27 There move the ships,

and there is that Leviathan

which you have made for the sport of it.

28 All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

29 You give it to them; they gather it;

you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

30 You hide your face, and they are terrified;

you take away their breath,

and they die and return to their dust.

31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;

and so you renew the face of the earth.

32 May the glory of the Lord endure forever;

may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

33 He looks at the earth and it trembles;

he touches the mountains and they smoke.

34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;

I will praise my God while I have my being.

35 May these words of mine please him;
I will rejoice in the Lord.

37b Hallelujah!

by sending your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation
